MISSION:

NORTH AMERICA 2013

How in the World Should We Live?

This year's convention theme is more than a catchy title. It is a question that merits serious consideration and an honest answer. As we approach this subject we need to be mindful of Jesus' words in John 17:16. Speaking of His followers He said, "They are not of the world."

Brothers and sisters in Christ... we are not of the world. As children of God we live in a different realm. The writer of Hebrews reminds us that we are "strangers and pilgrims on the earth." Therefore, we should think and live differently than the world.

And yet, while we are not of the world, we are in the world, and therein lies the challenge. How should we live in the world? Five preachers will attempt to answer that question from a biblical perspective.

Obviously, that question can't be answered exhaustively in the space of five sermons. However, these messages will deal with some of the most critical areas of Christian living today:

- Living Peaceably
- Living in the Spirit
- Living Godly
- Living by Every Word of God
- Living by Faith

Hopefully, these speakers and subjects will motivate us to individually explore more fully how we should live as Christ's followers. And then as we leave this convention, may we go home determined by His grace and power to "deny ungodliness and worldly lusts," and "live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world."

Keith Burden, CMP
Executive Secretary
