The Path to Revival

“If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land” (2 Chronicles 7:14).

This familiar text is more than simply fodder for convention sermons. It is a formula for revival. Revival is more than just a series of protracted meetings. It is a matter of spiritual life and death for our churches and our nation.

During this convention five preachers will examine this text from the following perspectives:

- The Problem Reviewed—A look at the historical context that prompted God to outline this path to revival.
- The People Responsible—God places the responsibility for revival squarely on our shoulders.
- The Prerequisite Required—Humility and prayer are essential ingredients for revival. They go hand-in-hand.
- The Prescription Recommended—Seeking God’s face and turning from wickedness is a call for action on our part.
- The Promise Revealed—If we meet His conditions, God has promised to hear our prayer, forgive our sin, and heal our land.

Some are convinced revival cannot come in our day. To them I respond with the words of the angel Gabriel in Luke 1:37, “For with God nothing shall be impossible.” I invite you to join me in prayer, asking God to meet with us in Kansas City and put us on The Path to Revival.

Keith Burden, CMP
Executive Secretary
