WHAT IS CTS?

CTS stands for Church Training Service and is a program that has existed among Free Will Baptists for more than 50 years. It is organized as a way for churches to help students develop a deeper knowledge of Scripture while also identifying and honing talents for use in the local church. The program is designed to be a ministry development tool and should be used as part of an overall discipleship plan.

The CTS Ministry Expo (often called "competition") is the national element of this program provided by Randall House. It takes place at the Vertical Three Conference and allows students from across the country to participate in competitive activities as a fun way to encourage study and proficiency across many disciplines.

It is the goal of this program to encourage perspective and community among Free Will Baptist young people while also driving home the importance of discipline and development. Although much of the instruction and evaluation will be coordinated through the church, the involvement of parents at home is crucial.

How Can I Get Involved?

Involvement in the national CTS Ministry Expo is not a requirement for participation in CTS but it does provide a wonderful outlet for those who are able to attend. Please check with your local FWB church or district association for details about entering or contact Randall House at CTS@verticalthree.com.

The mission of the CTS Program is to provide an opportunity for students to identify and develop their God-given abilities for use in service to Him and His church.

CTS Ministry Expo

The CTS Ministry Expo is organized as a way for churches to help students develop a deeper knowledge of Scripture while also identifying and honing talents for use in the local church. We welcome you to experience the various categories while here at VIII 2023 and encourage you to recruit other students from your church to participate in 2024.

How Can We Help?

One hundred twenty-eight Free Will Baptist high school students are working this week to make our conference the best it can be. They are designated by a Truth & Peace ribbon on their name tags. Each student has assigned duties they are expected to uphold and are an authorized extension of the conference staff. Should you need assistance or information, please feel free to seek their help. For more information about how you can participate in this program, please come by the VIII office for information or visit verticalthree.com.

Conference Curfew

The VIII Conference has established an 11:30 PM curfew for its participants. Students should not be without an adult sponsor or parent after this time. Hotel and convention center personnel have been informed of this curfew and will assist conference staff in enforcing it.

Scholarships? Sign Me Up!

Did you know that every year, more than $75,000 in scholarships are offered from Free Will Baptist colleges to participants in the CTS Ministry Expo? If a high school student you know earns first place in any category D event, be sure to have him or her check with any of the educational institutions in the Exhibit Hall to see what may be available.

Refresh Your Vision for Missions with GPS

Join us again this year for Global Purpose Seekers: A Missions Experience. On Wednesday from 9–11 AM in RCC 305, attendees of all ages will be able to connect with missionaries who have dedicated their lives in service to God and our denomination. Don't miss it!

Kids' Corner

The VIII Conference has something for all ages. Each morning (Monday–Wednesday) from 9 AM to 12 PM, kids in K5–6th grade are invited to experience a carnival-like activity in RCC Ballroom C. This is both an opportunity for children to blow off a little steam as well as an opportunity for parents to attend some of the seminars. Childcare is provided, but you must check children in and out with your security tag provided during registration.

Special Thanks

We send out a special thanks to EVERYONE who makes this week such an amazing event. We couldn't do it without all of our incredible staff and volunteers. If you happen to see one of them running around this week, let them know you appreciate all they do.

Conduct/Dress Code

Every aspect of the Vertical Three Conference, including the competitive activities, seeks to achieve a level of professionalism and excellence that is consistent with our goal of developing Christian leadership and service. For this reason we strive to maintain a high standard of conduct, appearance, and Christian testimony. This event is the highest level of activity for Free Will Baptist students in the nation. All participating students and adults are expected to display the utmost respect for and adherence to the following standards:

A. Code of Conduct

The conduct of participants is expected to meet the standard for believers in 1 Timothy 4:12 NIV, "Don't let anyone look down on you because you are young, but set an example for the believers in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith and in purity." Patience, kindness, and good sportsmanship is the exemplary rule to follow at all times for all participants, sponsors, parents, and visitors. Insubordination or disruptive behavior by any participant, sponsor, parent, or visitor toward any judge(s) or conference official(s) will not be tolerated. Behavior which does not exemplify a Christian will be grounds for disqualification from competition and/or expulsion from the conference.

B. Competition Dress Code

While we do not equate a particular style of dress with holiness, and we do not make judgments of character based on outward appearance, we do recognize the impact that appearance has on behavior, testimony, and influence. The Word of God provides principles to guide us.

Dress and appearance should be modest and promote purity (1 Timothy 2:9–10; 2 Timothy 2:22).

Dress and appearance should not reflect conformity with unholy fashions and patterns of the world (Romans 12:1–2).

Dress and appearance should complement masculinity in men and femininity in women (Genesis 1:27; Deuteronomy 22:5).

Dress and appearance should be appropriate to the occasion, avoid offense, and demonstrate a respect for excellence (1 Corinthians 10:23; 1 Timothy 4:12; Philippians 1:9–10).

Dress and appearance should avoid identification with cultural groups that reject Christian teaching (2 Corinthians 6:14–17).

It is understood that Christians may interpret these principles by varying degrees. Our intent is not to define the only standard of Christian dress and appearance, but to uphold a standard that is consistent with the high expectations of performance, conduct, and professionalism that is appropriate for an event of this significance. Specific applications drawn from the principles above include the following policies:

- All clothing should fit properly: no tight pants on men or boys; pants should be worn at the natural waist line and with a belt (no underwear exposed or shirt tails hanging out); no tight dresses, skirts, blouses, or sweaters on ladies or girls.
- Boys and men are to wear a shirt, and slacks (ties and coats are optional). Tank tops and T-shirts are unacceptable.
- Girls and ladies are to wear dresses that shall extend to the knee or longer. Dresses must not be low cut or revealing in style or material. Tops should not expose the waist or midriff. Slacks or pantsuits are unacceptable.
- Boys and men shall groom their hair to follow natural hairline without covering the ears or extending to the eyes or collar.
- Facial piercings, body art, unnatural-colored hair should not be displayed.

Costumes are permitted in specific drama categories. Some flexibility is permitted in the dress code to enable the presentation of a particular character. Use discretion to insure that modesty is maintained. Be creative without compromising this principle. Costumes that do not meet regular Dress Code guidelines may be worn only for competition and reasonable time before and after the event. Costumes are not an excuse to ignore the dress code. Judges will evaluate the appropriateness of costumes and may award points based on how well a costume fits the character and to the degree that a particular costume is required to portray the character.

C. Activity Dress Code

Participants in certain Vertical Three Conference off-site activities may find it more appropriate to wear attire other than that stated above. Male participants may wear jeans and T-shirts (provided they do not contain secular slogans). Female participants may wear loose-fitting T-shirts (provided they do not contain secular slogans) and loose-fitting knee-length attire, or loose-fitting slacks. Tops should not expose the waist or midriff. Clothing should not be tattered, ripped, cut, torn, or tied in a revealing manner.

CTS MINISTRY EXPO

This program is designed to be a ministry development tool for the local church and home. It should be used as part of an overall discipleship plan. A wide range of events is offered to enable students to discover their talents and interests. The competition and feedback help students develop and improve their knowledge and God-given skills. The students are challenged to dedicate their talents to God's service and use them in the ministry of the local church.

An important aspect of this program is the home. Although some of the instruction and evaluation can be done at church, a significant amount of the work must be done at home. The involvement of parents is crucial to the students being able to learn the material. Plus, it is one more way parents can fulfill the mandate of Deuteronomy 6:5-7, love God, love His Word, and teach your children to do the same.

Bible Competition is divided into six different programs:

- 1) Bible Memorization – Grades K5 through 12
- 2) Bible Sword Drill – Grades 4, 5, 6
- 3) Bible Millionaire – Grades 4, 5, 6
- 4) Bible Tic Tac Toe – Grades 7, 8, 9
- 5) Bible Bowl – Grades 10, 11, 12
- 6) TruthQuest – Grades 7 through 12
