Doers of the Word

The book of James has been referred to as the Proverbs of the New Testament. It is full of wisdom that is needed now more than ever. James doesn't just provide us with pithy words of encouragement, though. He encourages us to be doers of the word and not hearers only (James 1:22). That is our focus for this week.

In these confusing times of trials and temptation, God promises to give us the wisdom we need to grow in these trials if we Do the Word by Embracing Trials. How encouraging it is to think that God wants to use the trials we face to help us grow in Him.

At a time when it appears everyone wants to be noticed, James teaches us that every person matters. What an encouragement to us when we feel like we may not matter. Also, as Christians we are called to do the Word to those who are often forgotten. Let us Do the Word by Treating Others Well.

At a time when a life can be destroyed by a quick post, James instructs us to be careful about the words we say (and post). May we use our words to bless rather than to curse. Let us Do the Word by Taming the Tongue.

Like believers who have gone before us, doing the Word enables us to endure suffering. Let us Do the Word by Enduring Suffering. Lastly, we are called to take the Word to a lost world. Let us Do the Word by Reaching the World.

I hope your time in Tampa will be a special time and, as a result, we will work together to help each other be doers of the Word. May God bless you and your efforts this week and in the days that follow.

Edward E. Moody, Jr., Ph.D.
Executive Secretary
