*14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings: 15 That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

I like reading fiction or fantasy, but right now I am getting into some books that will enlighten my brain a little, such as Experiencing God: How to Live the Full Adventure of Knowing and Doing the Will of God by Henry T. Blackaby and Claude V. King (Broadman & Holman). To be honest, I have never finished a "Christian" book, probably because, growing up, Christian books were all over my house, and I wanted to stretch beyond what I could reach. But I hear this book changes lives, and I trust the people who recommended it. As I am reading Experiencing God, I feel like I am coming to know Christ more fully. I understand things that I never understood before.

Another book that I'm reading is called All You Need to Know About the Music Business by Donald S. Passman (Simon & Schuster). I'm reading this book in hopes of challenging someone who thinks I have no idea about the business I'm in. It's funny how us "kids" are viewed as not knowing about much more than pre-algebra or after-school craziness. I believe this book has allowed me to improve my conversations with others in the music business. If anyone is considering the music industry, strap this book to your back!

Pop singer Katy Perry opened up about her views on God and theology in a recent interview with Marie Claire, telling the magazine that she's no longer Christian and that she doesn't believe in heaven, hell or "an old man sitting on a throne."

Perry did tell the outlet, though, that she believes in a higher power — a paradigm that holds her accountable.

"Accountability is rare to find, especially with people like myself, because nobody wants to tell you something you don't want to hear," the singer said. "I actually don't trust people who start to turn on me because they get scared of telling me the truth."

Psalm 46

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. 2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; 3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah. 4 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

Psalm 46

*5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved:
God shall help her, and that right early. 6 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted. 7 The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.
Selah. 8 Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth. 9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.
10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.
11 The Lord of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is

Do the hard things—Psalm 15

15 Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

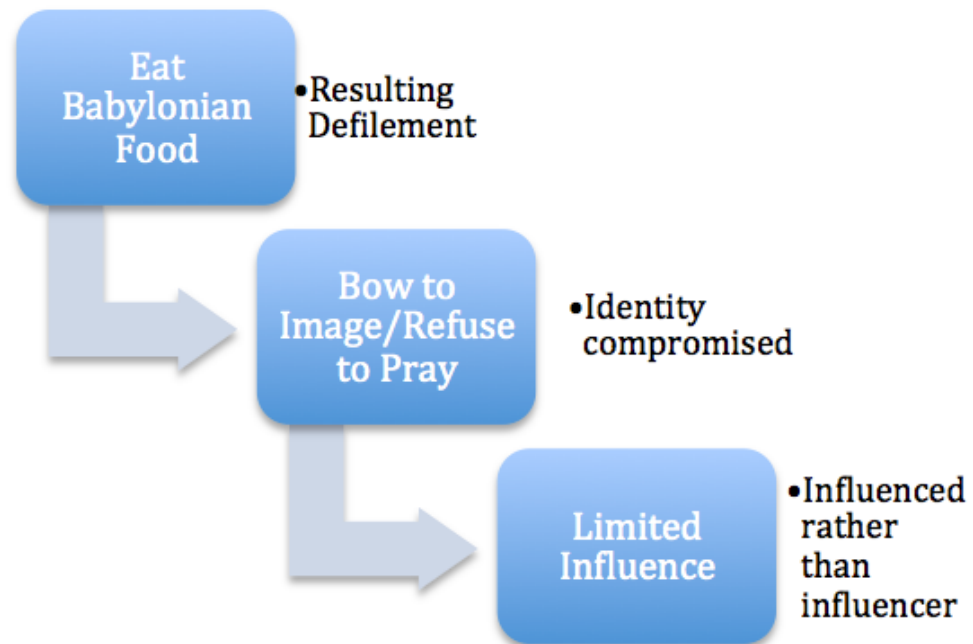

3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbour, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

In cruise ship sinking, leadership failures from captain to Carnival CEO

By Jena McGregor

The sinking of the cruise ship Costa Concordia highlights many leadership problems—even beyond those of the ship's captain, Francesco Schettino. (Tullio M. Puglia - GETTY IMAGES)

The obvious leadership story in the tragic cruise ship accident that occurred off the coast of Italy on Friday is that of Francesco Schettino, the ship's captain who has become a national embarrassment. Schettino, who now says he only left the ship because he tripped and fell into a lifeboat, was ordered back to the listing cruise liner by the

1 Corinthians 10:31

19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king.

20 And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and astrologers that were in all his realm.

Daniel 1:19-20

Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.
