

FIVE PROVEN APPROACHES FROM CHURCHES REACHING YOUNG FAMILIES

SAM RAINER

2025 NAFWB LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

SESSION 3

A GOOD CHURCH IS AN EXTENDED FAMILY EQUIPPING ALL GENERATIONS.

TWO KEYS TO A UNIFIED MULTIGENERATIONAL CHURCH:

#1: The older generation must sacrifice for the younger generation.

#2: The younger generation must be willing to learn from the older generation.

Stop viewing the other generation as a hurdle to your preferences and rather view multi-generations as a means of equipping within the church.

WHAT ARE THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE AGING TREND IN CHURCHES?

#1: An inherent generation gap exists between the church and the community.

#2: Many churches may feel “outdated” due to this age disparity.

#3: Older isn't necessarily worse, and younger isn't inherently better, but churches are more likely to grow through younger generations than older ones.

WHAT ARE THE IMPLICATIONS OF THE AGING TREND IN CHURCHES?

#4: The older the church, the more challenging it becomes to connect with the next generation.

#5: Hiring a younger pastor is not a silver bullet solution.

HOW CAN YOUR CHURCH REVERSE THE AGING TREND?

#1: You can't reach your community unless you know your community.

#2: Create a culture of embracing children and families rather than tolerating them.

#3: Invest in ministries that have children at the core.

#4: Care for single-parent homes and foster families.

#5: Visibility, consistency, and hospitality.
